CAHILL BROS., Props. Rockford, Iowa

A worth while offering --- seed of the choicest character to be sold, and listed by a firm of known reliability. An auction that should receive the attention of the prospective buyer.

It is a pleasure to recommend Cahill Bros. Shorthorns. They have a choice herd, it is a safe place to buy, their cattle are right in merit and breeding, and you need have no hesitancy in coming to their sale.

Cahill Bros. have always used good herd bulls. They have bought these bulls from the herds of leading breeders, and years ago when Shorthorns were selling at a low ebb ,Cahill Bros. at that time were paying prices for bulls which seemed high, but the good kind were in demand and Cahill Bros. knew what the right kind of a bull meant to their herd. The bull is the pivot around which any herd revolves. No breeder of improved live stock can hope to climb the ladder of success without the use of a good sire, and without using one good sire after another. This has been the secret of Cahill Bros. rise to eminence. People who come to this auction will be able to buy cattle that will be just as they are represented to be. Those who are in need of good females can well afford to be at this ringside.

One will have an opportunity to value the kind of seed that will always retain its popularity. As time advances, the seed that is acceptable today will be in fashion because time will have no substitute to offer. Read carefully the pedigrees. Note the prominence of the bulls which are to be found in each one. Aim to be at the sale.

FRANCIS T. MARTIN, of the Breeders' Gazette.
